Preface to Meisinger Family Tree

In 1949 when I started on the family tree project, I intended to set down in print the relationship of all the Meisingers here in eastern Nebraska. In 1950 we visited a cousin, Mrs Naomi Fornoff Somerville, and her husband Lloyd, in Moab Utah, and she graciously gave me copies of the Meisinger line back to 1701. She obtained these records by hiring researchers in the Geneological Library in Salt Lake City. They researched and translated Parrish and town records from Germany that have been microfilmed and brought to the library in Salt Lake City. Many earlier records are in the process of being translated for public use. We have visited the Library twice (1950 and 1958) and were amaged at the volumes of family records on file.

Through the years we have corresponded and visited with many of the family, attempting to gather information on the various branches. We became so interested that we have persued it farther, and are attempting to compile a records of all the descendants of the 5 brothers and 2 sisters that migrated from Germany to America in the 1840's and 1850's. The "family tree" is divided into parts, each part dealing with the descendants of one of the brothers and sisters that came to America.

Each married woman is listed in the index under both their maiden name and each married name. To date the index consists of over 4,000 people that we think are related to one another. The data on these people ranges all the way from just a name in some cases, to a complete biography in other cases.

In the past few years we have spent many hours studying and typing the information which now makes up this family tree. We have been completely amazed with the information we were able to put together, and considerably impressed with the history of many of our ancestors. We are now determined to persue the study of the family tree as far as we possibly can. Reading of the biographies of our forefathers has proven so interesting that we are sure future generations will be interested in reading our biographies. We are doing this work mainly for the benefit of succeeding generations who would otherwise have little idea of the history of their family. It has occurred to us that since the study of our family tree has been so interesting to us, that other folks are probably also interested, since it is their family tree as well.

We have not begrudged a minute of the work that has gone into this project, nor a penny of the cost which has been considerable, but we have been disheartened at times by the apparent lack of interest on the part of some of the people that we have tried to contact. Many of the people to whom we have written have responded in fine style, and have been very cooperative and helpful, but others to whom we have turned for information haven't even answered our letters. We hope that those who have failed to furnish information on their branch of the family will not think hard of us when they do not see their names in these pages.

We are deeply indebted to many people for making this publication possible. Our work has been, for the most part, to arrange, type, and print the material that has been laboriously gathered by many different people. We wish to publicly thank the many who have contributed, and solicit the rest of you to furnish information on your particular branch of the family.

Biographical sketches that we have included are few. Information collected, for the most part, is limited to the statistics. It is our sincere hope that a brief sketch of each family can be included in a subsequent edition. This will be possible only thru contributions from you, the readers. Experiences encountered by the pioneers, as well as humorous events, and occupations, are examples of what we would like to include into a later publication.

You can be of great help, if you will write to us, and tell us any information that you know about the family. Any information will help, particularly birth dates, and places; marriage dates and places; death dates and places; occupations, etc. Ideally, we would like to include a biography of each person in the family tree. Anything you can tell us about anyone in the family will help, whether it be a few sentences or several paragraphs, we will include it in future editions.

We are including as many addresses as we know in case any of you want to renew correspondence with some of your relatives. If you know of other addresses, or if you know that any of the addresses, or other data, is wrong, please let us know. Send us any information you can think of or find in old family Bibles, newspaper clippings, or other records, or send us addresses of people who might know.

Of the family of 9 children (above), it has been determined that 7 (five brothers and two sisters) came to America. They left the fatherland of Hessen Darmstadt, Germany in the 1840's and 1850's and, upon their arrival in America, migrated west to the vicinity of Pekin, in Tazewell County, Illinois. Their goal was to seek wealth and happiness in the new country. Later, during the 1870's and 1880's some of these and many of their children moved still further west to settle in eastern Nebraska, near Plattsmouth and Louisville, in Cass County and Springfield in Sarpy County. The remainder of the volume is divided into seven parts, one for the descendants of each of the early immigrants, as follows:

Part 1 Descendants of John & Anna Catherina Meisinger Volk (Nebr)
Part 2 Descendants of Anton & Anna Catherina Keil Meisinger (Ill)
Part 3 Descendants of Baltazer & Anna Catherina Kumpf Meisinger (Ill)
Part 4 Descendants of Johann Philipp & Anna Margaretha Hallstein Meisinger (Nebr & Ill)
Part 5 Descendants of Johann George & Elizabeth Margaretha Lannert Meisinger (Neb)
Part 6 Descendants of Johann Michael & Katherine Thierolf Meisinger (Nebr & Ill)
Part 7 Descendants of Heinrich & Anna Eva Meisinger Hartman (Nebr & Ill)

The states indicated above depict the locality where each family, or their children, settled. Needless to say, today descendants are located in most of the 50 United States.

The pattern used within each part is by generation. Each generation is in numerical sequence, and shows their families. The parents of any subject can be identified by dropping the last digit of the code and looking back to that number. Parents of the spouse, if known, are shown following the spouse's name. In the case of intermarriages, the children and their families are shown under the father's name.

In addition, a Part 8 is included to incorporate replies we have received from Meisingers living in this country, whose relationship, as yet, has not been established.

OUR NUMBERING METHOD - In attempting to distinguish between all the people with the same name I have researched different family trees that have been published & have adopted a numbering method to identify individuals in the family tree - one still not too complicated to follow for people not familiar with the system. Each person in the family has a code number. The code numbers were not arbitrarily assigned, they do have a meaning. The number of digits in the code number states the generation in this country to which the person belongs. For example, my number is 5-5-1-2-1 - these five numbers means that I am of the 5th generation in this country. Since the last number in my code group is "1" this says that I am the first child in my family. My father and mother have the same code number as I except the last digit has been left off (5-5-1-2). The first number in the group indicates the PART in which we can be located. To follow my ancestors thru the family tree, I start with my number, and start dropping the last digit each time to go to an earlier generation, for example:

5-5-1-2-1	myself
5-5-1-2	my father & mother
5-5-1	my grand parents
5-5	my great-grand parents
5	my great-great-grand parents

Brothers and sisters have the same code number except the last digit; first cousins have the same code number except the last two digits, etc. In the INDEX, all married women are listed both under their maden name and each married mane. Abbreviations commonly used throughout the family tree consist of: b - born; d - death; m - married; and par - parents.

The following biography of George P Horn (above) was extracted from "Portrait & Biographical Album of Otoe & Cass Counties, Nebr" published by Chapman Bros, Chicago, March 1889.

George P Horn. This gentleman, one of the leading farmers of Eight Mile Grove Precinct, crossed the Mississippi from Tazewell Co, Ill, in the spring of 1881, and coming to this county purchased 320 acres of land lying on sections 15 & 22 in this precinct, for which he was to pay at the rate of $10.50 per acre. He did not tarry long in Nebraska, however, at this time, considering that he had made a good investment which would naturally increase in value as time passed on. In the course of some seven years, revisiting it, he began making arrangements for its improvement and cultivation, renting it thereafter to other parties for a number of years.

Finally, noting the fact that Nebraska was becoming a State rapidly developing in rich resources and likely to be a desirable place of residence, Mr Horn left his old home in Illinois and took up his abode here in the spring of 1885. He had the year prior to this erected a substantial residence with other necessary structures, and now took possession. His standing in the community to-day is that of a self-made man, whose thrift and industry have been richly rewarded. He set out in life a young man without means and no resources but his strong hands and courageous heart. Of substantial German ancestry, he was born in Hesse-Darmstadt, Feb 6, 1831, and is the son of Peter and Catherine Kumpf Horn who were natives of the same Province as their son, and who spent their lives on their native soil. Their family consisted of nine children, six of whom are living and located mostly in Illinois & Nebraska.

Mr Horn, in common with the youth of Germany was placed in school when a lad probably of six years and received a practical education in his native tongue. His father was a farmer by occupation and George at an early date was trained to habits of industry, making himself useful around their modest home. Upon obtaining his majority, however, he became ambitious for something more than he believed he could attain in the Fatherland, and decided to emigrate to America. Bidding adieu to his early friends and the associations of his boyhood he repaired to Antwerp and secured passage on a sailing vessel which after encountering some storms, finally landed him safely in New York City, after an ocean voyage of forty-seven days. Proceeding directly westward he took up his abode in Tazewell Co, Ill, where he was somewhat of a pioneer. Not long afterward he purchased a tract of land in Tazewell County and bent his energies to its improvement. In the meantime he made his home with a neighbor, but having formed the acquaintance of a very estimable young lady, finally persuaded her to share his home and fortunes. With Miss Eva Volk he was united in marriage Oct 9, 1856. Mrs Horn was a native of the same country as her husband and born Sep 30, 1836. Her parents, John and Catherine Messinger Volk had emigrated to the United States and settled in Tazewell County at an early day where she was reared to womanhood.

Mr & Mrs Horn began their wedded life together on the new farm and their mutual labors in the course of years resulted in the establishment of one of the most comfortable homesteads in that region. This most estimable lady became the mother of nine children and departed this life at her home in Illinois Nov 11, 1875. She was greatly mourned by her family and friends and her death left a void in the home circle which can never be filled. Of the offspring of this union the record is as follows: the eldest daughter, Catherine, is the wife of George Nickel and lives at Plattsmouth, where also the eldest son, George, makes his home; Henry married Miss Emeline Hild and lives with our subject; Mary, Philip, Jacob, Isaac N, and Conrad continue at the homestead with their father.

Our subject, while a resident of Tazewell County, Ill, was quite prominent in local affairs, holding the various offices of his township and being closely identified with its agricultural and business interests. In his removal Tazewell County lost one of her best citizens and Cass County has been so much the gainer. Each year adds something to the value and beauty of the Horn homestead, which stretches over a goodly portion of the landscape and with its substantial buildings, its livestock, its groves of forest and orchard of fruit trees presents a picture goodly to the eye. Mr Horn after becoming a naturalized citizen identified himself with the Democratic party, to which he has since given his support. His has been a large & ripe experience, in which he has made the most of his opportunities and he deserves a position in the front ranks among the solid men of Cass County. About 1870 he identified himself with the I.O.O.F.

"AGED PAIR AND FOUR SPINSTER DAUGHTERS SPURN MODERNISM FOR HAPPY SECLUSION"

An old couple sits at home through each day, enjoying the companionship of one another and of their four unmarried daughters, and wondering why the world wags on so crazily. He is "Uncle" Peter Meisinger, 87, and she is "Aunt" Elizabeth, 81, the sweetheart of his boyhood days, who became his bride of 60 years ago.

In a small, pleasantly old-fashioned cottage, almost obscured by trees and shrubbery, on the outskirts of Plattsmouth, live the Meisingers, of solid German stock. Their humble and cloistered life together presents an unusual contrast to this modern world with its myriad attractions and mile-a-minute pace. Autos whizzing past in endless procession, speeding airplanes, the bleating and moaning of jazz bands, the roar of factory engines, man-made canyon of brick and steel, grating of street cars, surging crowds caught in the lockstep of the city, the movies, radios, stock market mania, newspapers - all of these are far removed from the Meisingers.

Practically the only contact they have with the outside world comes from the mail received by the daughters from all parts of the country, containing orders for the quilts which all four of them make and sell. The daughters support themselves and their aged parents on the income from the quilts.

Four sons are married, living on Nebraska farms, with families of their own to look after. The sons are John 59, George 58, William 50 & Baltz 44. The daughters are Margaret 56, Louise 53, Marie 46, and Katherine 42.

One day last week the Meisingers received visitors from Omaha. The visitors found "Uncle" Peter seated on the porch, napping. With his bushy gray hair and flowing mustache and beard, he looked the picture of Santa Claus taking things easy for the summer. "Aunt" Elizabeth was in the parlor, watching her industrious daughters as they worked away at their quilting.

The Meisingers have no auto and no radio. If a radio was purchased "Uncle" Peter might throw "the darn thing" out, according to the daughters. They believe it would be nice to have one though. There was no telephone in the Meisinger home until a few months ago, when it became necessary to call the doctor occasionally for "Aunt" Elizabeth, who suffers from asthma.

Born in Hessen Darmstadt, Germany, Meisinger was brought to this country when he was 6 years old, one of a family of seven children. He recalled that it took 42 days to cross the ocean. The family settled on a farm near Pekin, Ill, coming part of the way from New York by train and finishing the journey in a prairie schooner. Peter Meisinger started to school but soon quit. His schoolmates taunted him for being a "furriner" and beat him. He went to work in the fields for his father at the age of 8. When he reached adolescence, Meisinger fell in love with Elizabeth, American-born daughter of another German immigrant farmer and neighbor. He took her to dances - and sat on the benches and watched while she danced with the other young men. "I always thought dancing was the biggest foolishness a fellow could get into", said "Uncle" Peter.

"Uncle" Peter has been something of a model husband. About the only night during his entire married life that he spent away from home was 4) years ago when he broke his leg. That night he spent at the doctor's house. He caught his right leg in one of the wheels of the wagon, his team started up and he was dragged for several feet. His leg was permanently crippled. He still has the wagon. "Uncle" Peter & "Aunt" Elizabeth claim they've never had a quarrel in the 60 years of their marriage. "At least, none to speak of", she said.

He has ridden in an auto only a few times. A year ago his nephew took him for a ride to Omaha. They got as far as South Omaha - there "Uncle" Peter saw a street car rumble by, became a bit frightened and insisted on turning around and going home. He and "Aunt" Elizabeth have never seen a skyscraper or a modern movie.

The Meisingers came to Nebraska in 1891, lived on the same farm for more than a quarter of a century and, then 10 years ago quit farming and moved to Plattsmouth.

Part 5 - Descendants of Johann George & Elizabeth Lannert Meisinger

5 Johann George Meisinger b Aug 27, 1812 Bollstein, Hessen Darmstadt, Germany; d May 7, 1900 Plattsmouth, Nebr; m Jun 12, 1834 Bollstein, Hessen Darmstadt, Germany to Elizabeth Margaretha Lannert (par: Philipp & Eva Elisabetha Pfeiffer Lannert) b Feb 13, 1813 Bollstein, Hessen Darmstadt, Germany; d Jan 26, 1896 Plattsmouth, Nebr. They are buried Glendale Cemetery, Louisville, Nebr.

George Meisinger immigrated from Germany to Illinois (Pekin) in 1846, arriving there with is wife Lizzie and five boys and $50. in money. He rented forty acres of land and bought an ox team, and started his career as a farmer. In three years he had accumulated enough to build a house and buy a team of horses, and with the aid of his sons in the third year he planted forty acres of wheat which yielded him a crop of 900 bushels. This he sold at $1 per bushel, and with the proceeds bought eighty acres of farm and twenty acres of wooded land. In 1871 he bought a section of land in Eight-Mile Grove precinct, Cass County, Nebraska, paying for the same $7,600. In 1875 he moved to this county, disposing of his land in Illinois, and after coming here disposed of his land in this county to his three oldest sons, keeping but a quarter section for himself, which was subsequently known as the Meisinger homestead.

Extracts, in part, from their obituaries printed in Plattsmouth, Nebr newspaper:

Lizzie, wife of George Meisinger, died at the family residence, eight miles west of town, Saturday evening. The family is probably the best known in the county, and the seven sons, like their father, inherited that thrifty disposition, borne of a determination to provide well for themselves and their families, and are all comfortably situated in Cass Co. Mrs Meisinger was 82 yrs, 11 months, & 13 days of age. The funeral Sunday was attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends, and over 100 teams were in line. Rev Spriegel preached a very appropriate funeral sermon, and after several selections by the Liederkranz quartette, all that was mortal of Grandma Meisinger was consigned to its last resting place in the old Walradt Cemetery, there to await the final summons of Him, who doeth all things well.

George Meisinger, an old and respected pioneer of Cass Co, died at his residence in Eight-Mile Grove Precinct at 11:30 o'clock Monday morning of old age, after a long and varied career, and a useful and well spent life. The funeral will be held from his late residence at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and later from the German Lutheran church in the vicinity, where Rev Spriegel will deliver a funeral oration. Interment will be in Walradt cemetery. Mrs Meisinger departed this life 4 years ago, and the deceased leaves 7 sons and one daughter to mourn his loss. They are: J. B., J. M., Conrad, Henry, Jacob, G. P., P. H., & Mrs Fred Moldenhauer - all married. (One son, John, died in Illinois). Besides the children, the deceased leaves 56 grand children and 47 great grand children. The Meisinger family at present owns 2,800 acres of farm land - all located in Eight-Mile Grove Precinct.

Extracts. in part, from obituaries of some of the seven brothers, as appeared in the Plattsmouth, Nebr newspaper. On several occasions, a picture of the family appeared in connection with the tribute to the deceased.

Died - Meisinger, John Baltazer, aged 73 yrs, 7 mon & 2 days at his home near Plattsmouth, Nebr of diabetes, on Fri Jan 15, 1909. Funeral Sun Jan 17, 1909 from the home, interment Oak Hill Cemetery, Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Yesterday afternoon occured the funeral of one of Cass County's best and most widely known citizens, when all that was mortal of John Baltazer Meisinger was consigned to the final resting place in Oak Hill Cemetery. This noble man, the eldest of 7 brothers, departed this life on Fri, Jan 15, 1909, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at his home six miles west of the city, after a lingering illness which covered several years. He was one of natures noblemen, a man whom everyone knew to love and respect for his sterling uprightness and many manly qualities which had impressed themselves upon all who had the good furtune to know him. For 37 years this strong, sturdy man had made his home in this community and in all that long period, none knew him but to give him praise for his many excellant qualities of head and heart.

From the time he first came to Nebr Mr Meisinger had devoted himself to the upbuilding of the community. He had reared a large family who are examples of all that is good in life. He had by his thrift and industry accumulated a handsome competency and his broad acres stretch over the fairest portion of Cass Co. His name is today a synonym for strength and stability whether of financial or other lines, all the result of his steady application to business and his unswerving fidelity to honor and to trusts. Few men are they who can go to the grave with so pure and spotless a record and in a long and busy life point to the fortune accumulated without envy or malice pointing its finger, as this man did. His loss is one which the entire community must feel - a loss which must have its effect all over this section where his manifold interests exist. Such men are all too few and they must join the great and invisible army in one of the inevitable sequences of life.

In Memory of a Grand Good Man - John Michael Meisinger:

The visitation of death in a community is always the source of grief and sorrow to the family where the messenger makes his call, as well as to the friends of the loved ones whose eyes are kissed to everlasting sleep by the grim caller, and in the death of a prominent and worthy man, such as John Michael Meisinger, who passed away at his home in this city yesterday morning, the community must of necessity feel in the keenest way their loss of a citizen of high standing and a friend and companion whose place is hard indeed to fill.

For forty years the Meisinger family has stood in Cass County and eastern Nebr as all that embodies honor and respect, as the hardy family of seven brothers whose portraits appear in connection with this article, coming here in the early 70's, carved out by their industry a fortune for themselves and gave to the community the best of their years in making Cass Co what it is today, and their work has been well and faithfully performed, as is shown by the miles and miles of fertile lands in this county which are owned by the members of the family. The weight of years has caused many of the original family to withdraw from active life in the conduct of the farms, but sons and daughters of these worthy gentlemen have remained to carry on the work so splendidly laid out for them by their fathers. The family of seven brothers each established a home of their own here and the families grew and prospered until several years ago, when J B Meisinger was the first to be summoned to his final reward, and now the second brother in years has been called forth to his rest in the Great Beyond, leaving five of the brothers to spend their remaining years here in adding to their good work as the leading family in this section of Nebraska.

George Meisinger Called to Death - Another of Prominent family of Seven Brothers Goes to Reward:

Death yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock called away another of the seven Meisinger brothers who have been among the most prominent of this portion of Cass Co for many years, in the Person of George P Meisinger, one of the youngest of the famous family

Mr Meisinger had been suffering for a long time from cancer and has gradually wielded in the battle of life to the ravages of the disease until the hand of death yesterday brot to him relief and rest from his pain and suffering.

At the age of 24 he came west to Nebr and the family settled in Cass Co near Cedar Creek and it was here that this splendid young man commenced his career as a farmer that later through his thrift and industry brought him success and comfort in his declining years.

Death Calls one of County's Most Loved Residents - Philip H Meisinger

This portion of Cass County was grief stricken today with the news of the passing of one who had, with the members of his family, played a great part in the development of the great state of Nebr and particularly Cass Co - Philip H Meisinger answering the last summons last evening at the family home on Granite Street, where for the past several years Mr & Mrs Meisinger have been enjoying the sunset of their life.

The death of Mr Meisinger came very suddenly as he was up and around in the morning in his apparently good health but on returning home from the business section complained of not feeling so well and at 3:30 was stricken with a very severe heart attack that a few hours later caused his death.

The passing of this good man takes away the last of a family that has played a great part in the history of Cass County, the death of Mr Meisinger rather taking the last of the first generation of the family to settle here.

The following biography of Wendell Heil was extracted from "Portrait & Biographical Album of Otoe & Cass Counties, Nebr" published by Chapman Bros, Chicago, Mar, 1889.

WENDEL HEIL. The well-regulated farm of our subject which he purchased in the spring of 1869, occupies the southwest quarter of section 22 and 160 acres in the northwest part of section 27, in Eight Mile Grove Precinct, and with its appurtenences comprises one of the most valuable estates within its limits. For this land Mr Heil paid the consideration of $35 per acre, about half of it being uncultivated. He at once began its improvement and cultivation, and the erection of necessary buildings, the planting of trees, the laying of fences, and the other misc. labor necessary in the construction of the complete homestead. No one can deny that his industry has met with its reward, for the farm is now numbered among the best along the northern line of the county, and its owner as one of the representative agriculturists and stock-raisers. To the latter industry he has given his special attention.

The birth of our subject occurred Mar 12, 1848, in the Province of Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany, his parents being Adam & Magdalena Heil, the latter of whom died about July 14, 1851. The father came to America with his wife in 1831, and is now a resident of Eight Mile Grove Precinct. The parental household included five children. Wendel was a little lad of three years when his parents emigrated to the United States and settled in Tazewell Co, Ill. There our subject developed into manhood, becoming familiar with farm pursuits, and resided there until coming to this county. He received a limited education in its primitive schools, which were carried on in a manner far different from those of the present day, but his native intelligence sufficed to provide him with a good store of general information, and he launched out upon the more serious business of life with a fair idea of its requirements and the health and strength which were the natural results of temperence and correct habits.

To the mother of our subject there were born two sons only, Wendel and his brother William. The latter is now living in Eight Mile Grove Precinct. The father was subsequently married a second time, and six children more were added to the parental household, three of whom survive, namely: George, Henry & Elizabeth. These are now residents of Eight Mile Grove Precinct, and settled in comfortable homes of their own. Adam Heil is now in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He has been a man who has done a large amount of hard labor, and is now the owner of a good property, able in his declining years to surround himself with all the comforts of life. A man careful and conscientious in his daily walk, he is a member in good extent, upon which he settled in 1870, being among the leading German pioneers in this neighborhood.

Wendel Heil, our subject, was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Meisinger at the home of the bride in Cass Co, Nebr, Mar 26, 1873. This lady was born in Tazewell Co, Sep 10, 1855, and is the daughter of Michael and Catherine Meisinger, the latter of whom died April 21, 1884 at their home in this county. Mr Meisinger came to Nebr with his family about 1869, and settled among the pioneers of Eight Mile Grove Precinct. He is still living and a resident of the city. To the parents of Mrs Heil there was born a family of seven children, of whom five survive. Lena, the eldest, is the wife of John Wallinger, and with her brother Henry is a resident of Eight Mile Grove Precinct; Anna married Charles Reifenstahl of Pekin, Ill; Emma, Mrs George Weidman, lives in Plattsmouth, this county; Mrs Heil is the youngest living of the children.

Our subject, politically, is an uncompromising Democrat, and with his estimable wife a member of the Lutheran Church, attending services at Eight Mile Grove, and taking an active interest in its prosperity. Considering his nationality he could not be otherwise than in favor of the establishment and maintenance of schools and serves at present as Moderator of the district. The family represents the substantial element of citizens along the northern line of Cass County.

The following biography of John Albert (above) was extracted from "Portrait & Biographical Album of Otoe & Cass Counties, Nebr" published by Chapman Bros, Chicago, March 1889.

JOHN ALPERT: Cass County was first looked upon by the subject of this sketch in the spring of 1872, when he established himself in Eight Mile Grove Precinct, on a tract of rented land, which he operated for a period of three years. Having now gathered some means, and feeling justified in establishing the domestic fireside, he was united in marriage with Miss Maggie Hartmann, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride in this Precinct, Sept 26, 1875. The newly wedded pair commenced the journey of life together on a tract of new land purchased by Mr Albert, comprising 80 acres, in section 11.

Mr & Mrs Albert set up housekeeping in a style suitable to their circumstances and surroundings, and began battling with the elements of a new soil and the construction of a homestead. They labored with one mutual purpose in view, and in due time found themselves on a solid footing and in the possession of a cultivated farm. They lived here until the fall of 1886, then Mr Albert, selling out, moved to his present premises on Section 4. He is numbered among the leading landowners of this part of the county, having the warantee deed to 240 broad acres, upon which have been erected neat and suitable buildings. He is now enabled to rest upon his oars, and looking around him cannot do otherwise than contemplate with satisfaction the result of years of industry. Among his fellow-citizens he is a man held in high regard, is a stanch member of the Republican party, and interests himself in those enterprises calculated for the general good of the people around him. He believes in the establishment of schools and churches, and is the Treasurer of his school district, No 31. Both he and his estimable wife belong to the church of their forefathers, the German Lutheran.

Our subject, the son of John and Catherine Vetter Albert, was born in the Province of Hessen Darmstadt, Germany Feb 28, 1851. His father is a farmer by occupation, & both parents continue to reside upon their native soil, being now well advanced in years. John was the second son of the family, and in common with his brothers and sisters was placed in school when a little lad, pursuing his studies quite steadily for a number of years. At the age of fourteen he began learning the trade of stonemason, which he followed three years, and then decided to seek his fortunes in the United States. Bidding adieu to the friends and associates of his childhood, he took passage on a steamer at the port of Bremen, which after a voyage of 10 days, deposited him safely in the city of New York. Thence he made his way directly to Tazewell Co, Ill and soon secured employment on a farm, remaining in that vicinity three years and receiving for his services $225 per year and his board. In the spring of 1872 he decided to push further westward, and soon found himself on the other side of the Mississippi. His subsequent course we have already indicated. He is a man of more than ordinary intelligence, and although having little time to give to books since coming to America has picked up a good fund of general knowledge, which serves him admirable among the practical affairs of life.

Mrs Maggie Hartmann Albert was born in Germany, Jun 20, 1856, and is the daughter of Henry & Anne E Meisinger Hartmann, the former of whom is deceased, and the latter still living in Germany. In February 1872, when a young lady of sixteen years, Miss Maggie, accompanied by her sister Catherine, emigrated to America, making the voyage on an ocean steamer, and landing after 15 days in New York City. She also, like her husband, located in Tazewell Co, Ill, where she lived until 1875, coming then to this county, where she was married to our subject.

The precinct of Eight Mile Grove has been particularly fortunate in being settled by a set of sturdy, industrious German citizens, among whom Mr Albert is a leading spirit. He came to America a stranger in a strange land without means, and has worked his way upward by his own honesty and industry, and is deserving of the highest praise. It is such men as he who have been selected as the representatives of the intelligence and solidity of Cass County, whose names are worthy of being perpetuated in a work of this kind.
